As I write this Spring has just arrived and trees and flowers are just starting to bud out, thank goodness it is getting warmer, although by June and our reunion it will be quite hot in northern Arkansas!! The political races are hyping up more and more every day and I'm already getting tired of those pesky phone calls!! Gary is just starting to plant our garden, radishes, potatoes, peas, spinach, lettuce and onions are putting their roots down as I write! Received a message from cousin Cindy Hix a few weeks ago to tell me about a TV show called, "Finding Our Roots" one episode featured actor Neil Patrick Harris and low and behold he was related to our ancestors William & Cecily Farrar!!! The show didn't give anymore information other than what we have, but related the tale that Cecily has the notariety of being named in the 1st Breach of Promise suit in the new land. What I didn't know was that William Farrar was not only involved in the suit, but was her lawyer!!

We are not far away from commencing our 39th reunion, hoping that we will have a good turnout because we will be planning all the festivities for our 40th annual reunion blowout!!! If you have any good ideas or suggestions, plan on being present at the business meeting and sharing with us. I have been in contact with several people who are interested in being added to the list for our Newsletter and attending our annual reunion from Florida to California, hope some day they will have the time to come join us!!!! One in particular is Floyd Farrar from Hawaiian Gardens, CA a Navy veteran, I have included some information he has shared about his Farrar ancestors activities during the Civil War, hope you enjoy it. So be planning what to pack and getting your camping gear together or calling in reservations to motels so that you can be with us June 19th - 25th. Hope to see you in Arkansas!!!

Say "Hello" to your cousin Floyd Farrar, a Navy veteran, he resides in California with his wife Sherry and has been involved in some Civil War inactments and is very interested in genealogy. He's sent me some interesting information on some of our ancestors sons of our Great-Great-Great-Grandfather (to the 2nd Generation) John Howard Farrar who was married to Elizabeth Roland Harris. Together they had 10 children who lived to adulthood. The article I read, lists 5 brothers Albert Gallatin, Junius Henry, James Franklin, Rufus Harrison, & Lucius Augustus (Gus). Albert Gallatin & Junius Henry both homesteaded near Cave Springs, AR. Albert was reportedly killed in the battle of Pea Ridge, AR. An unconfirmed family legend states that Albert was quite possibly killed by his own brother Junius Henry.

They didn't see eye to eye on session and the Pea Ridge battle was near their homesteads. Even tho Junius was a Union sympathizer he didn't join the Union Army at the start of the war, but after his farm was burned for the second time he joined in 1863 along with two of his sons John Harrison & Nicholas who were aged 18 & 17 respectively. On August 20, 1865 at Memphis, TN all three mustered out of the U.S. Army and returned home to Benton county, AR. James Franklin enlisted as a Private in Company K, Tennessee 41st Infantry Regiment at Camp Trousdale, TN in November 1862 James returned to his home in Flat Creek, Bedford county, TN and lived an additional 39 years following the end of the Civil War. Rufus Harrison enlisted as a Private in the Tennessee 2nd Infantry Regiment in 1861 and this regiment was mustered into the Confederate Army in Lynchburg, VA. Rufus was killed in action in 1862 at the Battle of Shilo, TN. Lucius Augustus (Gus) enlisted in Company K, Tennessee 8th Infantry Regiment at Camp Harris, Tennessee on May 18, 1861. Lucius was elected to First Sergeant in 1862 and was wounded and left in the hands of the enemy following the battle of Murfreesboro/Stone's River in December, 1862. He was paroled sometime after March 1863 and vowed to never take up arms against the United States again. Then in May of 1864 he is shown on the Muster Report of his old unit as present and accounted for. Unfortunately he is once again captured, this time during the Battle of Atlanta July 22, 1864 by elements of General William Tecumseh Sherman's command. He was sent to Federal Military Prison in Louisville, KY before being sent to Camp Chase, Ohio in July of 1864. In March of 1865 he signed an Oath of Allegiance and was released. He returned home to Bedford, AR and lived another 47 years after the end of the Civil War.

Reportedly, 2 other brothers Samuel Terry & John Ingle are believed not to have served in any capacity with either the Union or Confederacy during the Civil War.

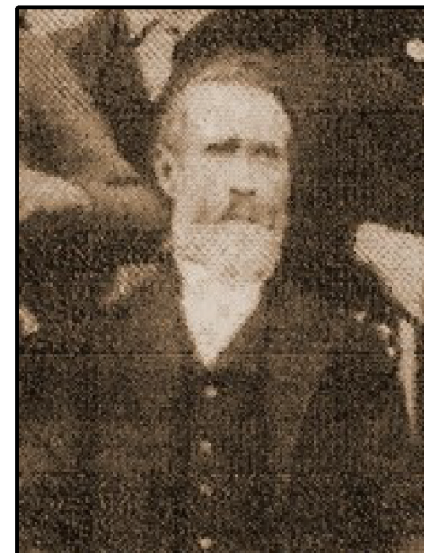

A sister to these boys was Parmelia Howard Farrar, she married her first cousin Joseph Howard Farrar and they are our Great-Great Grandparents. Her husband Joseph, son of Jordan Farrar was also a Civil War Veteran. Jordan & John Howard Farrar were brothers.
