Sunday: Public Day at Henricus Historic Park:

This is your day to join with the many other visitors to experience the Park in action and to appreciate and be enthralled by the dedicated efforts of these many volunteers depicting the early history of Farrars Island. A true learning experience for the young and the young at heart. Remember: this 800 acre Island was part of the 2000 acres patented by our immigrant grandfather, Col. William Farrar I. Here is where the first four generations, in the long history of our Clan, lived, worked, and played.

Monday: Tour Day, Exploring the Countryside and Points of Interest in Historic Virginia:

8:00 AM: The caravan forms. (In the Holiday Inn parking area directly across SR 10 from the Fairfield Inn.)

Malvern Hill Farm.

Lees last stand in the Seven Days Battle.

Travel scenic SR 5 (originally a buffalo and Indian trail) and the Colonial Parkway.

Yorktown.

Lawn Party. The Grand Finale!
